

Louisville Historical Commission Meeting With Museum Business Plan Consultant

December 16, 2015

Louisville Public Library
Board Room (Second Floor)
951 Spruce St.

6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Members of the Historical Commission will meet with a consultant being retained by the City to develop a business plan for the Louisville Historical Museum. The discussion will center on the current and future operations of the Museum and on the proposal made in the 2014 Museum needs assessment for the Museum to serve as a downtown visitor center and provide community programming and meeting opportunities.

Members of the Louisville History Foundation, along with members of the public, are also invited to attend and participate in this meeting.
